

DEAN DISCLOSES '85 PERCENTERS'

"Knightlights" Encores

"Knightlights," the Michaelmen talent revue presented last November in Austin Hall, will be given a repeat performance at Memorial Auditorium in Burlington. The tentative date for the show has been set at April 17, according to Co-Directors Leo Allard and Paul Kelly who this week announced the repeat presentation.

CENTENARY BENEFIT

This performance will be given to benefit the Bishop's Centenary Fund aimed at providing help and welfare for Vermont's aged, particularly for the aged and retired priests of the Diocese. The entire proceeds of the benefit will be given to His Excellency, Edward R. Ryan, D. D., Bishop of Burlington, as the contribution of both St. Michael's and Trinity College students to the fund. Although given financial backing by the Mission Crusade Club, the production will be given under the joint auspices of St. Michael's College, Trinity College and St. Edmund's Mission which embraces not only the College but also Fort Ethan Allen and vicinity.

Alumni News Gets "New Look"

St. Michael's College Alumni have recently seen their new magazine "Class."

Published six times a year, the pocket size, hard cover magazine succeeds the St. Michael's College Alumni News, a tabloid sized newspaper. Rev. Gerard E. Duford, S.S.E., alumni secretary, is editor.

WIDE IN SCOPE

Featured articles in Volume One, Number One, include "No Secret is Safe" from the best seller of the same name by Rev. Mark Tennien, '22, of Maryknoll; "Learning a Sacred Vocation" by Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.E., president of St. Michael's; "The New Curriculum at St. Michael's College" by Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., academic dean; "Coming of Age" by Thomas A. Garrett, registrar; "Vocations and the Alumni" by Rev. Eymard P. Galligan, vocational director for the Society of St. Edmund; and "St. Michael's Athletic Program" by Rev. John A. Stankiewicz, S.S.E., moderator of athletics.

SPORTS, TOO

Victor LeMieux, alumni president writes of "Incentive" and Prof. Robert A. Hebert, placement officer, is featured in another article. Columns of interest to alumni cover sports "Coffin Corner" by Fran Hoben, '53; Chapter Activities, Color Guard, marriages, engagements and Notes of Interest.

St. Michael's has alumni chapters in Burlington and Rutland, Vt., Boston, Worcester, Springfield and Pittsfield, Mass.; Albany and New York City and Hartford, Conn.

Summer Theater To Be Here Soon

A capacity crowd is expected at Austin Hall Tuesday night, February 24, when Players Incorporated, International Repertory Company, from Washington D.C., presents Shakespeare's Love's Labor's Lost. Players will be returning to the theater where they have been the resident stock company the past two summers.

Love's Labor's Lost is a romping, frolicsome comedy staged to delight the eye, ear, and the mind. The production has been richly and artistically enhanced by the effective sets and lighting of James Waring, stage designer and technical director for Faith of our Fathers, Washington D.C.'s Sesquicentennial extravaganza; and also by the exciting and colorful period costume designed especially for Players Incorporated by Joseph Lewis.

The individuals who make up Players Incorporated have had, like the Abbey Theatre in Ireland and the Old Vic in London, a single source of training and inspiration: the Speech and Drama Department of the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

Student tickets are $.50 and are available in the different halls on campus. Tickets will also be available at the box office.

VET SPEAKS MARCH 2 & 3

1st Lt. Robert S. Tauss

Stimulating flying training interest among AFROTC graduate, 18 Korean Air War veteran pilots are visiting AFROTC detachments beginning this week, according to Brigadier General M. K. Deichmann, AFROTC Commandant.

KOREAN VET

First Lt. Robert S. Tauss, a native of New York City, will visit St. Michael's March 2 and 3. He was pilot and squadron intelligence officer with the 37th Troop Carrier Squadron in Japan. He holds the Korean Service ribbon with one battle star, the UN ribbon, World War II, the American Theater ribbon and the Victory medal.

FOR ADVANCED STUDENTS

The young pilots, all lieutenants, will conduct informal

126 Students Honored

Are You Eligible For Scholarship?

March 7, will be the deadline for high school seniors who want to apply for 15 competitive scholarships offered to entering freshmen by St. Michael's College.

Awards will be announced about May 1. The scholarships are valued up to $400 each.

CEB TESTS

Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., academic dean, said applicants are required to take the College Entrance Board Scholastic Aptitude Test. They must also submit a recommendation from principal or guidance officer.

SEE THE REGISTRAR

Information on scholarships and application blanks can be obtained from Mr. Thomas A. Garrett, registrar, St. Michael's College, Winooski, 2, Vermont.

St. Michael's offers students a chance to work toward an Air Force commission through the AFROTC program while they pursue their degree program in the arts, sciences or business.

OPPORTUNITIES OPEN

Students may concentrate in: French Literature, English Literature, education, Economics, Chemistry, Business Administration, Biology, History, Latin, Mathematics, Philosophy, Political Science, Social Sciences or Sociology.

Shortly after the termination of each semester the office of the Dean of Studies compiles a list of all students who have achieved a general average of 85 per cent or higher.

ADDED HONORS

It is from these "Dean's Lists" that the candidates for the honors of Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude are chosen.

To achieve one of these honors no student may have failed any subject during his matriculation here at college. This is well to be remembered by all who have their eye on one of these goals.

THE BIG THREE

Those students who have reached the general average of 95 per cent or higher number only three for this first semester. They are, Freshmen Henrik N. Bredenberg, Robert J. Williams and Senior Thomas J. McElligott.

Those who achieved grades averaging to 85 per cent or higher are as follows:

Francis R. Adams
Louis A. Affinito
Leo J. Allard
Bro. James B. Anderson
Edward D. Archer
Paul R. Balcom
Robert J. Barba
John I. Barbati

SMC ROTC Ranks Second

St. Michael's College ranks second in New England and fifth in the country for colleges whose Air Force ROTC students have requested flying training upon being commissioned.

Latest bulletin from the Air University at Montgomery, Ala. shows three New England colleges among the top 10 per cent for volunteers in the country.

7% OVER U.V.M.

University of New Hampshire ranks first with 62.4 per cent, St. Michael's ranks fifth in the country and second in New England with 46.7 per cent. University of Vermont ranks 14th in the country and third in the New England with 39.5 per cent.

FLYING COLORS

Lt. Col. Jarvis R. Kingston, head of the St. Michael's College Air Force ROTC department, said that the high rating won by St. Michael's was due in large part to the flying offered by Capt. Thomas A. Cootey and Lt. Frank Delmerico during the first semester.

"Once a boy has been up in the air, all the things we say about the thrills of flying come alive," Col. Kingston said.

St. Michael's has enrolled some 400 Air Force ROTC student in the past two years.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENTS ONLY

The students take two years of basic courses and two years of advanced training. During the last two years, they are paid $27 a month and attend summer school for which they are also paid. Successful students are eligible for a commission upon graduation.

WAITERS TURN THE TABLES

Clearly expressing their joviality at the waiters banquet are (left to right) Peter Chiacchieri, Fr. Dupont, Fr. D'Agostino, Bill Doyle, Fr. Moriarty, Mr. Buchan and Fr. Stankiewicz.

"Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow its back to work!" These were the watchwords a week ago last Wednesday night, February 11, as the St. Michael's waiters and dishwashers enjoyed a banquet in the college dining hall

COMMENDATION GIVEN

Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty S.S.E., president of St. Michael's, spoke briefly to the gathering commending the student help on their past work and urging their continued cooperation throughout the remainder of the year. Bill Doyle, head waiter and toastmaster for the evening, introduced Father Moriarty.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Other guests at the banquet included Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., Rev. Lorenzo D'Agostino, S.S.E., Rev. John A. Stankiewicz, S.S.E., and Mr. John Buchan.

Mr. Buchan, business manager of the college presented the awards to the students honored for outstanding work in the dining hall in the past. In presenting the awards Mr. Buchan personally congratulated each of the boys who included waiters Jow McCann, Bill

Houghton, Bill Logue and dishwasher Peter Zuk.

AN ANNUAL AFFAIR

Headwaiter Doyle, as well as each of the other guests of honor, also spoke briefly to the boys expressing appreciation for their grand work and spirit of cooperation in the dining hall. Doyle said that he hoped the waiters banquet would become an annual affair.

The tables were turned for the evening (as far as serving was concerned for several lucky seniors has the privilege of serving the waiters.

"Would you put an editorial in the MICHAELMAN encouraging some students to be more mature?" That is a question which has been voiced quite frequently to the editors of this newspaper.

"GOOD INTENTIONS"

The usual answer to such a query is, "Why don't you write a letter to the editor?" But, although it is a policy to withhold names if so desired, the would-be reformers fail to "kick through" with their "guided missiles" and no word is printed.

But, seeing there is considerable interest in this problem (and also because it is the season of lent) the editors have put their old gray heads together on the problem of the maturity of students at this college and, fully realizing their own limitations, have come up with the following questions and criticisms. How do you rate?

(1) Do you speak your own mind at class meetings, club meetings or assemblies instead of complaining later about a situation you might have corrected?

(2) Once a campus project is initiated, do you give your whole-hearted and enthusiastic co-operation, regardless of previous inclinations?

(3) Are you the "big wheel" type who enjoys the doubtful honor of being thought important by less intelligent students, but who seldom (if ever) does any work toward a project?

Who Me?

(4) Do you make a sincere effort to extend your friendship outside your own small clique?

(5) Are you considerate of the student in the next room who may have a tough exam scheduled tomorrow? Have you faced the responsibility of the importance of your studies?

(6) Are you proud to be a Catholic? Or do you merely put up with the idea for the sake of appearances?

(7) Do you take advantage of the opportunities to fulfill a particular duty -- giving glory to God by means of the Blessed Sacrament -- or do you gripe about being compelled to go to Mass once a week?

(8) When you honestly realize that some student is acting contrary to the principles of this college, do you accept the responsibility invested in you as a future member of society?

(9) Do you, particularly upperclassmen, attempt to aid the name and the spirit of the student body by "sounding off" when there is something wrong, or do you accept the passive attitude of "the crowd" ---- and do nothing?

(10) Do you read the quality of literature you would be proud to display to anyone? In other words, are some of you missing part of your education?

Just ten questions worth 10 points apiece. How did you come out on it? And in this "course" -- growing into a mature, responsible and integrated person 60% is not passing.

Perhaps a sincere effort to make use of this season of lent will not be a waste of time?

Oblate Dean Outlines Education Problems

The dilemma of modern education can be solved only in the light of Catholic teaching.

That's what Rev. Lucien Dufault, O.M.I., told a St. Michael's College audience last Monday night, February 16. Fr. Dufault, dean of the department of philosophy at Oblate College and Seminary, Natick, Mass., was the Delta Epsilon Sigma lecturer in Austin Hall.

"NO MUSEUM PIECE"

Speaking of "The dilemma of education in a changing world," Fr. Dufault declared: "As Catholics we have all that we need to solve the dilemma. In the supernatural order, we have the teachings of the church. In the natural order, we have the wisdom of Thomistic philosophy. The trouble is that we haven't applied our philosophy in the field of education. Too often we have been hesitant, have tried to adjust ourselves to modern trends. The time has come for us to state our position clearly and to show the world that Catholicism is not a museum piece, but the source of wisdom and righteousness, as it has been during 2000 years."

VIA MEDIA

He outlined the dilemma as the problem of "keeping our traditional heritage without being conservative (in the bad sense of the word), and without losing contact with a world which is not conservative, and yet avoiding the purely pragmatic attitudes of the liberal."

The philosophy of St. Thomas, Fr. Dufault said, accepts what is sound in many aspects of modern education, although it refuses to admit that education should be primarily concerned with materialistic purposes.

"DOES TRUTH EXIST?"

Because our times seem to be an age of subjectivism, Fr. Dufault said, people are not really interested in truth. Their preferences, he said, are for an individualistic framework of reality. With the breakdown of medieval culture, man entered into a period of utter despair, and subjectivism became the only satisfactory answer.

THE MARK OF WISDOM

Thomistic philosophy is the strongest bulwark against subjectivism, he said, because it maintains the primacy of the intellect over the will. Because philosophers have wavered as regards objective truth, they have lost the respect and love of truth, which is the mark of true wisdom.

INHUMAN PRACTICES

As a result, Fr. Dufault said, "propaganda and indoctrination have taken the place of instruction and information. Neither is a form of intellectual activity in the proper sense. They are but an effort to break down one's morale, so that he may acquiesce to what he rejects intellectually. Propaganda and indoctrination may be more effective in relation to immediate results, but they are essentially inhuman because they are subhuman and necessarily carry the seed of future revolt."

ROTC HEARS "OPERATION COLDSPOT" COMMANDER

By DON RESSE

On Tuesday afternoon Feb. 17, 400 students of the St. Michael's corps of AFROTC cadets heard an address delivered by Major General Robert W. Douglas, Jr., commanding general of the 18th Air Force. "Operation Coldspot" presently being conducted by the 314th Troop Carrier Wing from Stewart Air Force Base in Tennessee is under the supervision of Gen. Douglas.

WINGS OVER S.M.C.

The troop carriers involved in "Operation Coldspot" which are C-119 "Flying Packets" have been seen spreading their giant wings over the St. Michael's campus quite often recently.

That college campuses offer the best source of material for officers of the Armed Forces was the central theme of the General's talk. He said that AFROTC units were of unquestionable value in instilling the qualities of good leadership in future Air Force officers. Gen. Douglas made the point that college trained AFROTC men were readily able to absorb military technology and to be fashioned into good officers and leaders.

INTEGRITY NEEDED

The qualities desirable in an officer were also the object of consideration in General Douglas' talk. Among the foremost were initiative and a sense of responsibility. A good officer, the General said, knows not only his own job well but also has sufficient knowledge of the jobs allied with his, so at any time he may assume greater responsibility. That someone is able to efficiently take his place at any time is also one of the many responsibilities which a good officer must accept.

Lt. Col. Jarvis R. Kingston, head of the St. Michael's College AFROTC introduced Gen. Douglas. He also conveyed appreciation in behalf of the cadet corps for the General's taking time from his work to make the address.

Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.E., president of St. Michael's welcomed Gen. Douglas and paid tribute to the cadet corps for its high percentage of students volunteering for the pre-flight option. Fr. Moriarty also expressed his admiration for the excellent progress demonstrated by the AFROTC since its inception at S.M.C. in Sept. of 1951.

Also present for the occasion was the band under the direction of M/S Stone, which greeted General Douglas with ruffles and flourishes and played a number of favorite marches.

College Students Meet At R.I.

By JOHN CARROLL

The Winter Council of the New England Regional section of the N.F.C.C.S. was held at Providence College last weekend.

Saint Michael's was represented by three delegates. They are Joseph McCann, senior delegate, John Carroll, Junior delegate and Theodore DiMauro delegate.

The purpose of the meeting was as follows:

1. To receive representative's reports who attended the National Congress of the N.F.C.C.S. last summer at Notre Dame, Indiana.

2. To inspect and increase the efficiency of the regional organization itself. This was done by-

(a). Receiving and evaluating the work of individual commissions whose job is to redistribute all pertinent information to specific college campus clubs.

(b). Evaluating the work of the N.F.C.C.S. delegation on each campus. St. Michael's received a "very good" rating. Two schools received "Excellent" ratings; seven received "very good" ratings and the other fourteen colleges were rated as "sub-par."

3. To instill a new zeal into the delegates to better the conditions of the weak clubs of the respective campuses so that the regional unit itself may profit from their ideas and thus become a more efficient organization.

4. To exchange plans and helpful aids concerning the functions of the clubs themselves. The delegates from St. Michael's have returned with several new ideas which they hope to put into operation in the near future through the medium of the Campus Clubs.

5. To discuss future plans especially the Regional Congress which is being planned for the month of April in Boston.

The meeting started with an opening Mass Saturday morning after which Rev. Robert Slavin, president of Providence College addressed the group. He emphasized the duties of the delegates to be positive and Catholic in all their work and to improve daily in their struggle to their final end. God.

100 MILE LAW PASSED

The final work was finished Sunday when old and new business was considered. A law of much importance to St. Michael's was passed. It states that all delegates to any N.E.C.C.S. connection which is more than 100 miles from the meeting place may receive up to 75% of their traveling expenses to and from the meeting. The money would come from an increase of the registration at the particular meetings which the distant delegates would not be required to pay. The law was passed to defray the heavy expenses entailed by small distant schools in order that more of these colleges may be represented at N.F.C.C.S. meetings.

NEWMAN CLUB EMPHASES

Another law was passed which obligated the senior delegates of all colleges to make better contacts with the Newman Clubs in their immediate area (In this case the U.V.M. Club) and to lay plans for future co-operation.

MCCANN LAW DEBATED

The greater debate of the whole conference was reserved for the last issue of the day. It extended the time of the meeting by 1½ hours (much to the dismay of the St. Michael's delegation who had heard reports of heavily falling snow in Vermont.) The issue was brought up extemporaneously by the Regional President, William Rust, who asked that the N.F.C.C.S. of New England support a revision of the McCann immigration law. This opinion would be mailed to all New England Congressmen and Senator.

Anyone attending the meeting could not help but realize the responsibility of campus club officers and the great need for students to put into practice the theories and ideas learned in the classroom. Every club represents a subject being taught in school whether directly or indirectly and it is of benefit to all students to use this knowledge to their own advantage.

All the delegates left Sunday evening well pleased with the efficiency and accurate management of the meeting by Providence College.

If anyone were to glance out the window at the blanket of snow covering the campus, about the last thought to enter his mind would be that another baseball season is rolling around. Nevertheless, the publication of the '53 schedule leads us to make a few premature remarks about this year's edition of the St. Michael's nine. The schedule itself is much the same as last year with the exception that the Knights will face Champlain twice during the season.

Opening game will be against the traditional rivals, the Catamounts of Vermont on May 1, in Centennial Field. Lowell Tech will provide the opposition in the opposition in the first home contest during the Spring Weekend of May 8. The complete schedule lists eleven games and Coach George "Doc" Jacobs' charges will have to take to the road for six of these.

The team as a whole has suffered quite heavily through graduation or otherwise over the past year, and Coach Jacobs will have no easy time replacing men like Whelan, Cronin and Coggio. An All-State man for two years, Whelan sported a .326 batting average, while Cronin set the pace for the Knights in slugging and RBI's. Art Coggio, the former infield spark at the hot corner, has since moved in as assistant coach. Also missing from the varsity of the past season will be pitchers Ed Keating, Paul Caouette and Mike Vartuli plus John Temperelli, a receiver, and John Donovan, a slugging outfielder. Coach Jacobs will have to build his team around veterans like Ken Casperson, Bob Bolster, Norm Faucher, John Barbaty and hurlers Herb Gardner, John Sully and Lou Andreotta.

The complete schedule is as follows:

May 1	Vermont	Away
5	Champlain	Away
6	St. Lawrence	Away
8	Lowell Tech	Home
9	Middlebury	Away
11	Vermont	Home
13	Norwich	Home
15	Williams	Away
16	Champlain	Home
18	Norwich	Away
19	Middlebury	Home

Congratulations to Mr. Fred Dimmaier and the Ski team for the good showing at the Norwich Carnival. Captain Don LaBrake did especially well by capturing second honors in both the Downhill and the Giant Slalom... Basketball intramurals have reached the halfway mark and Ray Maloney of the Pre-theos is still the leader in individual scoring. Ray has totaled 121 points for an average of over 17 per.....That little guy who coaches the unbeaten St. John's contingent is John Barbati, now a three sport man.....The Knight's George Barry is second to Sonny Dennis of Middlebury in State scoring.....In addition to the Boston University game, the SMC cagers will play a couple of exhibitions before the weekend closes.

ST. JOHN'S HOLDS LEAD IN INTRAMURAL LEAGUE

St. John's continued in their winning ways and remained atop the intramural circuit by knocking off Ryan III for their eight straight victory without a defeat. John Lennon's 14 tallies led the Frosh to their 40-30 win while the losers were sparked by Carey Hamrah and Tom Cowell with 8 points apiece.

Ryan IV and St. William's, who are in a tie for second place, insured their holds by beating their respective opponents St. James and Old Hall II. Pace by Dick Giltrop, the Ryaners trounced St. James 38-20, while John Sully tossed in 23 for St. Williams who ran away from Old Hall to the tune of 50-29.

Art Hogan tallied 13 as Burlington Off Campus downed Ryan Hall II by a 33-20 count. Joe Canas led the vain attempt of the losers with 10. The intramural games, as planned, will continue right up to the Easter recess. Father Stan-kiewicz claims that by that time each team will have played a full schedule of 16 games. Immediately following the completion of the league games, there will be a playoff or tournament among the top teams which will decide the intramural championship.

Cagers Hosts To UVM

by Joe Antone

The St. Michael's hoopsters with a present 8 and 9 record, can within week's time change a rather indifferent season into a successful one. This weekend, the Knights will match baskets with Boston University, and then next Wednesday night they will play hosts to the University of Vermont, in a contest that will be important from the stand point of the State Championship.

SMC BATTLES BU AND JINX

At B.U. the Purple Knights will be out to put a stop to the so-called "Boston area" jinx. The Knights have yet to win either in the Garden or the Arena. However, the fact that the B.U. contest will be played in their gym may be helpful to the Knights who would like nothing better than to return knowing that they have finally conquered any teams nemesis, the jinx. A victory down there would also set the Knights above the .500 mark for the first time since the St. Anselm's game on January 25.

REISNER BU SCORING ACE

The Terriers of Boston University have three of their starters over six feet tall. The tallest, 6'4 Marty Reisine is captain and the holder of the school's scoring mark. Coach Matt Zunic works his whole offense around Reiser, whose specialty is the hook shot from the pivot. The other 6-footers are Bob Spence, an excellent rebounder, and Don Russell and John Nunziato, a rugged 5' 5" boy who also excels in football and baseball, round out the starting five. The Terriers mediocre 7-7 record can be attributed to the fact that many of their defeats have come at the hands of the more power-packed teams in New England.

STATE CROWN IN BALANCE

Wednesday night's encounter with the Catamounts of Vermont will be a decisive one. A win for the Knights would guarantee them a tie for the State Diadem, pending the outcome of the future battle between the Cats and Middlebury. If the Knights (4-1) fail to defeat UVM, and they in turn knock off Middlebury (4-1), then a three way tie will result. On the other hand, the crown could go unquestionably to the team that beats the Cats while the other is losing.

Although Coach Jacobs Purple Knights have been rather hot and cold throughout the season, the one attribute that they have constantly shown has been desire to win. In their last outing with the Catamounts, the Knights were trailing by as much as 16 points midway in the third period, but a late surge gave the SMC cagers a well deserved 59-57 win Vermont, out to avenge this defeat, will probably have as their starting five: Keith Jampolis, Al Malinverni, Nat Campana, Earl Steinman, and Billy Meyer.

The Knights led by Captain George Barry and high scorer Bob Young should be in to shape mentally as well as physically for both games. Rangy Bob Murphy, Mike Carr and Hank Witte will round out the starting five for the Knights. Murphy and Carr are themselves from the Boston area and would like nothing better than to beat a team from home. The Vermont game will be the last state encounter for Barry, Witte, Murphy, and Carr, and could enable the Knights to walk off with another state

IT TAKES a good, tough, serious guy to wear the gear of an Aviation Cadet. But if you can measure up, here's your chance to get the finest in aviation training—training that equips you to fly the most modern airplanes in the world and prepares you for responsible executive positions, both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate! In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER
If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination at government expense.

Where to get more details:

talks with the advanced students at 200 detachments located throughout the United States, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico on their experiences while in flight training and descriptions of their present flying duties.

On temporary duty with the AFROTC from other Commands, the pilots are primarily jet fighter pilots from SAC, TAC, and ATRC. In combat, they flew every plane the United States has in Korea except the B-29.

COLLEGE GRADS

Hand-picked, the majority of the group are college graduates, and they will visit their own school as well as others in their home area during their 90-day TDY with the AFROTC.

"Knightlights"

ADVANCED PREPARATIONS

For this reason a call will be issued to the students of both colleges sometime next month, not only to feature as stage talent, but also to assist in the many other positions necessary for a presentation if this size. Needed particularly will be Michaelmen interested in working as stagehands, auditorium staff, advertising assistants, ticket representatives, Business staff, as well as lighting and technical assistants.

CAST OF 180

Plans already established call for an enlarging of the original cast of 110 to 180. The new "Knightlights" will follow the varied and fast-paced pattern set by last November's show; however, all soloists and featured acts will present different specialties, and seven acts have been dropped altogether. Most notable change thus far has been the dropping of the "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" act which has been replaced by another dance ensemble routine, again with the "twist" ending.

PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT

Assisting Allard and Kelly will be Frank Barrett, President of the Knights and Knaves, who has been chosen to direct the publicity campaign. Barrett will be aided in advertising promotion by Owen Murphy, President of the Student Council and Editor-in-Chief of the Shield, and Chris Carey, Editor-in-Chief of The Michaelman.

William Doyle and Marty Walsh, President and Veep respectively of the Mission Crusade Club will again handle ticket sales and promotion, and auditorium management will be directed once more by Denny O'Brien. John Crotty will lead the Finance Committee as Business Manager. Joe Vignaly, Joe Castricone and John Hamilton will direct the new dance ensemble routine and John Cauley succeeds Hamilton as Opening Chorus Director.

ARE YOU CAPABLE?

Although "Knightlights" is yet in the planning stage, anyone interested in joining the cast or in working as a member of the various committees is requested to contact the Directors or any of the mentioned committee heads.

A Southern belle once said to me,
"I'd like to tell you—all
That I smoke Luckies 'cause they're free
And easy on the draw!"

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste and LUCKIES

TASTE BETTER!
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment.
And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother!
Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And,
what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco.
L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy-GO LUCKY!

I went to see the Registrar—
He sent me to the Dean.
The Dean said, "Son, smoke Lucky Strike—
They're smooth! They're fresh! They're clean!"

In spelling class we get high grades
Because we plainly see
That better-tasting cigarettes
Spell L.S./M.F.T.

Where's your jingle?
It's easier than you think to make $25 by writing a Lucky Strike jingle like those you see in this ad. Yes, we need jingles —and we pay $25 for every one we use! So send as many as you like to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O.
